

SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE
(Toronto Region)

BETWEEN:

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

v.

BRUCE MCARTHUR

BRIEF STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. Between 2010 and 2017, Mr. Bruce McArthur killed the eight men included in the indictment before this Honourable Court. Mr. McArthur committed these eight first degree murders in the City of Toronto.
2. Mr. McArthur intended and caused all of their deaths. During each of these murders, one or more of the following factors were present: planning and deliberation, a murder committed in the course of sexually assaulting the victims, or a murder committed while the victims were unlawfully confined.
3. After he murdered the men, Mr. McArthur, in an effort to avoid detection, dismembered their bodies. He disposed of the body parts at the Toronto residential address of 53 Mallory Crescent, where Mr. McArthur worked as a gardener. He placed some body parts in planters on the property and others were buried in the ravine adjacent to the property.
4. Mr. McArthur kept items belonging to some of his victims.

5. During their search of Mr. McArthur's bedroom, police officers uncovered a duffle bag containing duct tape, a surgical glove, rope, zip ties, a black bungee cord, and syringes. These items belonged to McArthur.
6. Mr. McArthur killed Skandaraj Navaratnam on or about September 6, 2010. During the investigation, into the murders, police seized a piece of leather lacing from Mr. McArthur's van which contained Mr. Navaratnam's DNA. After killing Mr. Navaratnam, Mr. McArthur kept his bracelet. During a search of Mr. McArthur's bedroom, police found the bracelet.
7. Mr. McArthur killed Abdulbasir Faizi on or about December 29, 2010. Mr. Faizi's abandoned vehicle was located near a home that Mr. McArthur had access to at the time of the killing.
8. Mr. McArthur killed Majeed Kayhan on or about October 18, 2012. This murder was sexual in nature. Mr. McArthur staged Mr. Kayhan after he killed him.
